Evening Executive MBA

January 2012 to September 2013 • Monday, Wednesday and Friday • 6:00pm to 9:30pm

Managerial Competence

THE AIM'S EXECUTIVE MBA PROGRAM is now within your reach. The Evening EMBA is designed to enable working professionals to achieve an MBA from a world-class business school while balancing work, familiar and personal commitments.

Leadership and Personal Growth

Our goal is to teach all EMBA students the fundamentals of business and to endow them with general management competence they need to lead, build, and manage enterprises that create value in a dynamic, global economy. The AIM Evening EMBA delivers an educational experience that will prepare all students in a collaborative learning environment.

Build up of Intellectual Capital and Organizational Capacity

The program includes International Leadership Week which combines intensive learning about the culture, politics and economics of a particular country with a one-week visit to the region. Students tour cultural sites, visit companies, and meet with local business leaders, government officials, and academics to gain multiple perspectives of how a country of interest to get a first hand glimpse of how business is conducted in that part of the world.

World Class EMBA Degree without Disrupting Career

All of these opportunities, and many more, provide students a strong base of networking, allowing them to build class ties, synthesize knowledge, while offering vast possibilities to merge theory and practice.

Your EMBA Degree is just 20 months away. The program is scheduled from January 2012 to September 2013
